

TIKKUN OLAM, REPAIRING THE WORLD

Justice, Justice Shall You Pursue. - Deuteronomy 16:20

Boston Food Bank - Congregants and visitors are asked to bring a donation of canned food each time they come to Temple Israel. The donations, collected on the Baker's Rack in the atrium, go to the Greater Boston Food Bank.

Family Table - Temple Israel's current assignment is to collect kosher peanut butter and kosher raisins. We are responsible for 40 jars of peanut butter and 40 servings of raisins each month. Please deposit your donations in the collection box in the atrium.

BOOTIES & HATS Needed

Knitters are needed to supply New England Medical Center with little hats, tiny booties and small blankets (24" x 24") for the Premie and Infant Nurseries. Do you like to knit or want to learn how? We have patterns, yarn, and instructions. Contact Diane Cline at 617-527-7187 or lyac@erols.com. Here's a chance to get involved while relaxing at home.

The Greater Boston Coalition for Literacy

The GBCL mobilizes the Jewish community to help ensure that all children learn to read by the end of third grade. This wonderful opportunity pairs adults to form partnerships with public elementary schools and community centers in underserved communities. We provide training and resources. Call Joanne Grossman (617-332-7481) and Rhea Bufferd (617-969-5562) to get involved or visit our website at <http://www.jcrcboston.org>.
