Installation of Rabbi Suzie Jacobson as Rabbi and Education Director of Temple Israel of Boston

Program led by Rabbi Sharon Cohen Anisfeld and Rabbi Dan Judson of Hebrew College

Boston, MA: Rabbi Suzie Jacobson will be installed as Rabbi and Education Director of Temple Israel of Boston on Friday, October 30, during Qabbalat Shabbat. Rabbi Jacobson received her rabbinic ordination and Master of Arts in Jewish Education from Hebrew College in Newton, MA.

“Every once in a great while,” shared Rabbi Ronne Friedman, Senior Rabbi of Temple Israel, “we are fortunate to be connected to someone who exudes a rare fusion of energy and enthusiasm, intellect and inspiration. Our newest rabbi, Suzie Jacobson, is such a person. During the past six years, as she studied at Hebrew College’s Rabbinical School, Suzie took on a variety of different educational leadership roles at Temple Israel. The near-uniform response of her students (children and their parents, as well as adult learners) was often expressed: ‘I love her!’ We are thrilled to celebrate her presence as part of the Temple Israel family and our clergy team.”

Rabbi Jacobson brings a deep passion for ensuring that Temple Israel is inclusive and just, that our educational programs allow students to bring their whole selves, and that our prayer is meaningful, authentic, and full of immense joy. We are delighted to welcome her as our new Rabbi at Temple Israel. To learn more about Rabbi Jacobson and the entire clergy team, visit www.tisrael.org.

About Temple Israel of Boston: Temple Israel is a diverse, urban, Reform Jewish congregation where all are welcome to live Judaism together through discovery, dynamic spirituality, and righteous impact. We welcome the opportunity to comment further on this story.
