Interfaith Communities and Massachusetts Communities Action Network (MCAN)
Lead Prayer Vigil at ICE Detention Center

Boston, MA: With ICE targeting undocumented immigrants in our neighborhoods, communities of faith and Massachusetts Communities Action Network (MCAN) will stand together in prayer in order to make a public statement that people of faith stand up for the rights of undocumented immigrants.

On Sunday, October 15 at 2:00 p.m., interfaith communities and MCAN will gather at the Suffolk County Jail House of Corrections for an Interfaith Vigil to show our support for those currently being detained.

We expect at least 100 people in attendance as we hear words from faith leaders taking action to support undocumented communities, testimony from those impacted by these unjust deportations, and as we pay our respects to those who have died in ICE custody.

Faith leaders expected to attend the gathering

- Rev. Dorothea Littlepage, Roxbury-Dorchester Power in Community
- Rabbi Matthew Soffer, Temple Israel of Boston
- Rev. John Allen, First Congregational Church of Milton
- Rabbi Claudia Kreiman, Temple Beth Zion Brookline

About Temple Israel of Boston: Temple Israel is a diverse, urban, Reform Jewish congregation where all are welcome to live Judaism together through discovery, dynamic spirituality, and righteous impact. We welcome the opportunity to comment further on this story. Learn more at www.tisrael.org.
