Interfaith Action for Transgender Equality

WHAT: YES on 3 is the campaign working to uphold Massachusetts' nondiscrimination protections for transgender people in public places like restaurants, retail shops, and hospitals. With polling alarmingly close, this is an urgent interfaith action showing our support of equal rights for all. Join us to hear interfaith perspectives and learn how we can have collective impact. This action represents groundbreaking interfaith strides with representation from Catholic Priests, Orthodox Rabbis, and many other queer and allied clergy & faith leaders taking an interfaith stance for YES on 3.

WHEN & WHERE: Thursday, September 27, 2018, 7:00 – 9:00 p.m. at Temple Israel of Boston, 477 Longwood Avenue, Boston, MA 02215.

CO-SPONSORS: Episcopal City Mission, Eshel, First Parish in Cambridge Unitarian Universalist, First Parish in Brookline, Freedom for All Massachusetts, Grace Community Boston, the Jewish Alliance of Law & Social Action (JALSA), the Jewish Community Relations Council (JCRC), Keshet, Massachusetts Board of Rabbis, Social Action Committee of Arlington Street Church, St. Ignatius of Loyola Church in Chestnut Hill, St. Cecilia Parish, Temple Israel of Boston, Temple Sinai, Theodore Parker Unitarian Church, and the Union for Reform Judaism (URJ).

PROGRAM: The evening will include an opening prayer, an opportunity to connect with each other, a personal story, a discussion on why this is an religious issue, next steps, and a closing prayer.

About Temple Israel of Boston: Temple Israel is a diverse, urban, Reform Jewish congregation where all are welcome to live Judaism together through discovery, dynamic spirituality, and righteous impact. We welcome the opportunity to comment further on this story.
