When I die
Give what's left of me away.
To children
And those that wait to die.
And if you need to cry,
Cry for your brother
Walking the street beside you.
And when you need me,
Put your arms
Around anyone
And give them
What you need to give me.

I want to leave you something,
Something better
Than words
Or sounds.

Look for me
In the people I've known
Or loved,
And if you cannot give me away,
At least let me live in your eyes
And not in your mind.

You can love me most
By letting Hands touch bodies,
And by letting go
Of children
That need to be free.

Love doesn't die,
People do.
So, when all that's left of me
Is love,
Give me away.

Merritt Malloy

IT IS NEVER TOO LATE

The last word has not been spoken, the final verdict is not in.
It is never too late to say no to the past and yes to the future,
to offer remorse,
to ask and give forgiveness.

It is never too late
to start over again, to feel again to love again to hope again.

It is never too late to overcome despair, to turn sorrow into resolve and pain into purpose.

It is never too late to alter my world, not by magic incantations or manipulations of the cards or deciphering the stars.

But by opening myself to cultivate forces buried within,
to hidden energies,
the powers in my interior self.

In sickness and in dying, it is never too late.
Living, I teach.
Dying, I teach,
how I face pain and fear.
Others observe me, children, adults,
students of life and death,
Learn from my bearing, my posture, my philosophy.
The night I lost you someone pointed me toward the Five Stages of Grief.
Go that way, they said,
it’s easy, like learning to climb stairs after amputation.
And so I climbed.
Denial was first.
I sat down at breakfast, carefully setting the table for two. I passed you the toast – you sat there. I passed you the paper – you hid behind it.
Anger seemed more familiar.
I burned the toast, snatched the paper, and read the headlines myself.
But they mentioned your departure and so I moved on to Bargaining. What could I exchange for you? The silence after storms? My typing fingers?
Before I could decide, Depression came puffing up, a poor relation, its suitcase tied together with string. In the suitcase were bandages for the eyes and bottles of sleep. I slid all the way down the stairs feeling nothing.
And all the time Hope flashed on and off in defective neon.
Hope was a signpost pointing straight in the air.
Hope was my uncle’s middle name,
He died of it.
After a year I am still climbing, though my feet slip on your stone face.
The treeline has long since disappeared;
green is a color
I have forgotten.
But now I see what I am climbing toward: Acceptance written in capital letters, a special headline:
Acceptance.
Its name is in lights
I struggle on,
waving and shouting.
Below, my whole life spreads its surf, all the landscape I’ve ever known or dreamed of. Below a fish jumps; the pulse in your neck.
Acceptance. I finally reach it. But something is wrong.
Grief is a circular staircase. I have lost you.

Linda Pastan
A Sacred Pilgrimage

Birth is a beginning
And death a destination
But life is a journey.
A going — a growing
From stage to stage.

From childhood to maturity
And youth to age.
From innocence to awareness
And ignorance to knowing;
From foolishness to discretion
And then perhaps, to wisdom.

From weakness to strength
Or strength to weakness —
And, often back again.
From health to sickness
And back we pray, to health again.

From offense to forgiveness,
From loneliness to love,
From joy to gratitude,
From pain to compassion,
And grief to understanding —
From fear to faith.

From defeat to forgiveness —
Until, looking backward or ahead,
We see victory lies
Not at some high place along the way,
But in having made the journey, stage
By stage, a sacred pilgrimage.

Rabbi Alvin Fine
The Temple Israel Cemetery was established in 1859, five years after the Congregation was founded. The acquisition of land in Wakefield was a highly significant investment, resulting in a rapid increase in Temple membership as the new Congregation became able to meet all the life cycle needs of its members.

The cemetery is a window on the history of Jewish Boston, recalling earlier traditions and practices, and honoring people whose family names are well known in the community. It is unique in its garden-like atmosphere that has been carefully nurtured and maintained throughout its history. In fact, the minutes of the 1910 congregational meeting note that “our cemetery, which is the most important adjunct of the congregation, is beautiful and everything in connection therewith is in the finest possible condition.” Today, although Temple Israel now has many “important adjuncts,” the cemetery remains part of the life cycle of the Temple and its member families.

The cemetery is open to visitors. From almost its beginnings there has been a tradition of having an annual community memorial service at the cemetery. This service is scheduled for Spring.

Cemetery plots are available for purchase by members in good standing of Temple Israel. Those interested in more information on the purchase of plots or who would like to visit the cemetery to see available plot areas should contact Executive Coordinator Sue Misselbeck at the Temple, 617-566-3960 x 117 or susanm@tisrael.org. To reach the cemetery from Boston, follow Route 95 North to exit 57/Wakefield and go right onto North Street at the bottom of the exit ramp. Continue approximately three-quarters of a mile to Beacon Street on the left, a small street bordered by two cemeteries. Turn left on Beacon Street and park. The Temple Israel Cemetery is on the right side of Beacon Street.
